ALL HIS AILMENTS DISAPPEARED

When He Tried "Fruit-a-lives" or Fruit Liver Tablets

MOUNT BLENKAP HOTEL, LAKEPORT, N.H.

"At 70 years of age, chronic Constipation was causing me to suffer with distressing Headaches, Dizziness and indigestion.

I believe I have taken more medicine than any half-dozen people in town; but nothing did me good until I tried 'Fruit-a-lives'.

Right away I could see their good effects. After taking them for three months, my bowels were regular, and the other ailments disappeared."

Clock an audience of music and art lovers, a violin recital given under the auspices of the Killingly Woman's club by Miss Grace Fisher of New York.

A talented musician who spent several years studying abroad, Miss Grace Fisher was accompanied by Miss Grace Fisher of New York.

Miss Fisher's programme of numbers was as follows: La Folia, Corelli-Leonardi, Concert in G minor, Brahms, Prelude, Allegro Moderato, Adagio, Finale, Allegro Energico, Romance in B Major, Beethoven, Caprice Viennois, Kreisler, Hungarian Dance No. 5, Brahms-Johann, Ave Maria, Schubert-Wilhelm, Mazurka, Chopin.

Benjamin Brown, whose home is in Danielson, read a group of poems by Kipling.

The out-man car that has been in service on the Central Village-Moosup line of the Connecticut company has been put into service between Danielson and East Killingly and made its first run on Wednesday. The car was quite well patronized and the fact that only one man is required to operate it cuts down the expense of operation on a line where it has been practically decided to abandon service entirely this week.

It was learned here Wednesday that in matter of establishing a permanent motor freight service overland between Danielson and Providence was being investigated. Just what the outcome of this will be is to be made known definitely in the near future.

About twenty-five agents representing in what is known as the Willimantic district, which includes Windham county, were gathered at Camp Whippoorwill, near East Killingly, where they enjoyed a real feast at a clam dinner prepared by "King" George Jacques, of East Killingly.

Arthur Dupre, secretary of Leo J. L'Honore post No. 21, American legion, said on Wednesday that the post is ready to furnish blanks on which ex-service men may make applications for the Veterans' life insurance, which is being provided shall be presented to them. Mr. Dupre will gladly give all necessary information relative to the obtaining of the medals, which are artistic in design and which should come to be greatly valued by all who served Uncle Sam in the World war.

L. S. Barstow of East Killingly said Wednesday morning that the plan of shipping milk by motor truck to Providence from points in this town and in the town of Foster is working out satisfactorily. About 2500 quarts of milk are being carried by two trucks each under a favorable arrangement that the producers have been able to make shipping by motor truck is proving only slightly more expensive than the rate given the producers when they were shipping by trolley over the P. and D. road.

How the motor truck plan will work out during the storm periods of the winter when the highways are difficult of negotiation seems to be troubling some of the shippers, but a reasonably mild winter should permit of regular service being maintained.

That the borough save a great deal of money by deciding to do its own sewer construction work in North street and adjoining thoroughfare is attested by figures showing that the completed job cost the borough at the rate of between $2.05 and $2.85 a foot compared with $5 a foot, the lowest figure submitted by any contractor who bid for the job, and the contractors' bids contained provisions for extra charges for rock excavation and additional charges of $5 each for man holes. The cost to the borough as given here includes rock excavation, manholes and all other charges. Burgess C. W. Atwood of the borough sewer committee said Wednesday afternoon, Chas. B. Howard of Franklin street was superintendent for the borough on the sewer construction work.

State Officer Howard Elliott, of the bureau of domestic animals, was in town Wednesday on route to Jewett City to seek out a dog reported to be suffering with the rabies and to have been running wild in that town.

Miss Annie Gates has entered the employ of the Diamond store at Putnam, taking up her duties there Wednesday morning.

ing has led to the impression that they were automobile thieves, seeking an opportunity to pilfer a machine from some garage.

It has been stated that within the month a systematic effort will be made to induce as many women as possible to become electors. One plan proposed is a house to house canvass, blanks being left for each woman of each household who is qualified to become a voter. A request made that they fill out applications.

Rev. W. H. Davis of Philadelphia, formerly pastor of St. Alban's church here, was a visitor with friends in town Wednesday.

At his home in the Westfield section, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, funeral services for Gitaire l'Heureux were conducted by Rev. M. Joseph Twomey, formerly pastor of the Danielson Baptist church. Mrs. C. A. Frost sang at the service. The bearers were J. W. Gallup, H. J. Durbank, Arnold Wild, Joseph Farron, E. H. Hammett and Joseph Crutina. Burial was in Westfield cemetery. A. P. Wood was in charge of the funeral arrangements.

PUTNAM

J. Harry Maun returned Wednesday from a stay at his cottage at Gates Ferry. Mr. Maun will return for a few days more at the resort and next week will close his cottage for the season.

David Clark, who lives out on Killingly avenue and who was in town displaying a Senator Harding button Wednesday morning, said that his first vote was cast for Abraham Lincoln.

Figures given out Wednesday afternoon show that 163 pupils are registered at Putnam high school, a gain of 5 over the figures last year.

Miss Anne Gates of Danielson has entered the employ of the Diamond store taking up her duties there Wednesday.

Joseph Bednarz charged that John Chudak owes him $150 for board. This the defendant denies. Attorney C. L. Torrey represented Mr. Bednarz, while Attorney Eric H. Johnson was counsel for Mr. Chudak.

It appeared from the testimony that Chudak, a widower, came into the Bednarz home to live on March 8, 1917 and remained there until October 18 of the same year.

Bednarz claimed that Chudak was to pay $5 weekly for his board, but Chudak says that Bednarz had told him when he first came there that he could have a warm room and a comfortable place, the understanding being that Chudak, who was then in impaired health, should look after the welfare of the Bednarz children while the parents worked in the mill.

On the witness stand Bednarz said that Chudak while living at the Bednarz home ate from the same table with the Bednarz family and of their food. Chudak claimed that he boarded himself, buying his own meat, bread, butter and canned goods.

Bednarz denied that Chudak had cared for the children during his stay at the Bednarz home, and so did Mrs. Bednarz, called as a witness, while this testimony was supported by Mrs. Anna Podol, a neighbor residing on Powhattan street. Mrs. Podol said she had cared for the baby and that the other two children, while not in school, played about for themselves without any supervision. As to this Chudak testified that he had cared for the children and that, although Mrs. Podol was paid to care for the baby, she did not do so, only as she came in to watch and take it to her own home just before Mr. and Mrs. Bednarz returned from work.

Lawrence Cebula, another neighbor, said he was present when Bednarz entered into an agreement with Chudak to take the latter into his home. He said that Bednarz had offered a warm room and other comforts to Chudak if he would but go to the Bednarz home to live. Cebula also testified that he had many times seen Chudak buying meat and other provisions but he admitted under cross examination that he did not know whether Chudak was purchasing with his own money and for himself or as an agent acting for some other person.
